

This order form is for your convenience and does not list all that we make. This is our weekly rotation. We also offer seasonal items. See our Wits' End Offerings Page for a complete listing. We are happy to make birthday cakes and other items not listed here, on request at other times of the week, as we are able, so please call if you have questions. Please have orders to us by the Monday evening previous to the Wednesday delivery date. Remember to order enough of your favorites to cover the month if it's something we only make once a month. Bar prices vary as we sell them by the pound (since we can't cut straight!). Amber is playing in a new bread cookbook and will be offering a new artisan bread each week as she gets to them. Types will be a surprise :) Mark "Artisan Bread" if you'd like to try it! Prices may vary. As we see what you're ordering, we may adjust our offerings accordingly, so let us know what you like!
